Ephesians 5:1-14

5 <sup>1</sup>You are the children that God dearly loves. So follow his example. <sup>2</sup>Lead a life of love, just as Christ did. He loved us. He gave himself up for us. He was a sweet-smelling offering and sacrifice to God.

<sup>3</sup>There should not be even a hint of sexual sin among you. Don't do anything impure. And do not always want more and more. These are not the things God's holy people should do.

<sup>4</sup>There must not be any bad language or foolish talk or dirty jokes. They are out of place. Instead, you should give thanks. <sup>5</sup>Here is what you can be sure of. Those who give themselves over to sexual sins are lost. So are people whose lives are impure. The same is true of those who always want more and more. People who do these things might as well worship statues of gods. No one who does them will receive a share in the kingdom of Christ and of God. <sup>6</sup>Don't let anyone fool you with worthless words. People who say things like that aren't obeying God. He is angry with them. <sup>7</sup>So don't go along with people like that.

<sup>8</sup>At one time you were in the dark. But now you are in the light because of what the Lord has done. Live like children of the light. <sup>9</sup>The light produces what is completely good, right and true. <sup>10</sup>Find out what pleases the Lord. <sup>11</sup>Have nothing to do with the acts of darkness. They don't produce anything good. Show what they are really like. <sup>12</sup>It is shameful even to talk about what people who don't obey do in secret. <sup>13</sup>But everything the light shines on can be seen. And everything that the light shines on becomes a light. <sup>14</sup>That is why it is said,

“Wake up, sleeper.

Rise from the dead.

Then Christ will shine on you.”
