Go and make disciples of all nations (Matthew 28:19)

Greetings to the Queensland Presbyterian Charges from Australian Presbyterian World Mission Queensland committee,

This Sunday is Pentecost Sunday with APWM-Qld call for prayer for our missionaries. We are thankful for the advancing work of God over the past years as we now support 24 missionaries. Our missionaries ask for your prayers as they face the challenges of reaching the lost in sensitive security contexts, reaching the lost with limited resources, and reaching the lost in complex, cross-cultural circumstances. They seek courage, wisdom and strength to overcome many barriers and hurdles and to see the Gospel mission grow in areas where it presently has little impact. Please pray for God's mercy and grace to bring forth the fruit of salvation through the service of our missionaries.

Please pray for the Missionaries in our APWM-Qld family: *Dan and Rach (S-E Asia), Ian and Dorcas (working from Qld), *J and R (East Asia), *L and C (S-E Asia), *L and L (S-E Asia), *M and A (Central Asia). Keith and Elspeth Campbell (Ukarumpa, PNG), Jeroen and Diana Zwijnenburg (Kompam, PNG), Adam and Helane Ramsay (Chiba-shi, Japan) Ian and Norma Mclver (Uganda), Keith and Kathy Benn (working from Australia), Emmanuvel and Christobel Jhonly (part-time to India).

Appeal: This Sunday also provides an opportunity for your congregation to give a donation towards APWM National. Since the receivership, the Queensland churches have not supplied a contribution to the costs of our Director Kevin Murray and administrative assistant Sheryl Sarkoezy. APWM operate on a large volunteer workforce to keep running costs to a minimum but still require financial contributions to do the work.

If you make a donation, please put your name and the word "Pentecost" in the description box on the bank transaction page. If you would like a receipt for your donation, please send a short email to finance@apwm.org.au to tell them your name and the amount you have transferred.
